

Transforming Lives

Moving In Moving On – An Evaluation of the Outcomes and Costs of Congregated and Community Models of Service in the Disability Sector

Thursday 16 December 2021, 2 p.m. to 3 p.m.

National Disability Authority

The National Disability Authority (NDA) is the independent statutory body with a duty to provide information and evidence-informed advice to Government and officials in the public sector on disability matters.

Event

The National Disability Authority will launch a new report titled ‘Moving In Moving On - An evaluation of the outcomes and costs of congregated and community models of service in the disability sector’ on 16 December 2021. This study presents an in-depth examination and comparison of the outcomes, and financial costs associated with congregated and community models of service. And also an analysis of the quality of life of a range of persons with disabilities living in the community

The study was commissioned and funded by the Health Service Executive (HSE) as part of the Transforming Lives Programme.

Venue

This will be a virtual event hosted on Zoom.

Agenda

Welcome and Introduction

Dr Aideen Hartney, Director, National Disability Authority

Presentation of Findings – Quality of Life Outcomes

Dr Caroline O’Nolan, Senior Research Officer, National Disability Authority

Video contributions from study participants

Presentation of Findings – Cost Analysis

Dr David Hallinan, Senior Research Officer, National Disability Authority

Reflections from the HSE

Suzanne Moloney, National Disability Specialist, Health Service Executive

Q&A

Moderated by Dr Ros Tamming

Close